Project Description

The aim of the project “We Are One: Harmony in Diversity” is to spread democratic peaceful values to create a harmonious European community where diversity enrichment for all people is present without distinction, while respecting each other and cooperating in solving conflicts in a peaceful way rather than creating new ones.

To achieve this goal, 2 peace education courses will be done among 9 countries (Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland, Germany, France, Spain, Lithuania, Hungary and Cyprus).

The courses consist of a theoretical and practical part on topics such as connecting diversity and harmony in society, cooperation, perceiving one's own value, one's own influence on surroundings.

Project Description

As a result of the education should be first the change in perceiving peaceful values of the participants and the way to achieve peace, and second creation of a methodology for the implementation of peace education in practice of each worker.

The first course took place on 01 - 09 December 2022.

The second course will take place on 20 - 28 April 2023 in Ivancice in the Czech Republic and will be deeper focused on methodology.

Project Description

The first TC 1.-9.12.2022
Ivancice, Czech Republic.

The first TC includes :

- Peace education training in which participants understood diversity between people and its importance in maintaining harmony and safety in society and all the world.
- Participants had space for reflection, discussion and at the end creating methodology for practical implementation of discussed topics into their practice.
- Implementation phase 1 (5 months)

Participants work on implementation of created methodology into their practice with remote support of the peace education lecturers.

Structure of the courses

The second TC 20.-28.4.2023

Ivancice, Czech Republic.

The second TC includes:

- sharing of the implemented methodology and deeper peace education in the topic of democratic values and focuses on the importance of order and its need in community, society and between countries.
- During the course, the methodology for implementation of obtained values will be developed by each participant so as he/she can use it for further implementation in his/her own class, club, center or youth group.
- Implementation phase 2 (5 months+)

Participants will work on implementation of created methodology into their practice with a remote support of the peace education lecturers until they are able to continue in this process on their own.

Participants

fluent English

Each training course will be attended by 27 youth workers, teachers, educators, lecturers and other professionals in the field of non-formal education, culture, sports, etc.

Workers should already have experience in youth work, they should already be able to create programs and actively work with youth.

Participants should be active, open to new things, eager to create new things and put them into practice.

Participants should work with an interest in creating a democratic environment and a desire to contribute to the creation of a respectful society with different views to create harmony.

They should have a desire to help their country be more responsible.
