PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The "All Colors of Education" project is designed to enhance the educational process by promoting the use of graphic facilitation and visual thinking tools. Its main objectives include:

- Raising awareness about the importance of visual tools in education and youth work.
- Building a personal visual library and understanding the basics of visual language.
- Practicing sketch-noting and graphic recording for efficient visualization of concepts.
- Recognizing the benefits of visuals in memory retention, motivation, attention-grabbing, and prompting action.
- Grasping the concept of graphic facilitation and its application in different scenarios.
- Encouraging the use of graphical tools for creativity and critical thinking.
- Exploring online visual thinking tools and platforms for online learning.
- Enhancing self-expression and minimizing misunderstandings.
- Aiming for a ripple effect in the competence development of visual thinking in education and youth work.
- Developing visual aids for self-learning in visual thinking and graphic facilitation.

The project will be structured around two training courses, with an online course in between to bridge knowledge gaps and deepen understanding of the project's theme.

THE STRUCTURE

The first TC 07-15.11.2023
