

Game People Play

1	Developer Name(s)	Marian (game mechanics), Rabia (design, game ideas), Andrey (rules improvement)
2	Game Name	MAR (comes from initials Marian, Andrei and Rabia)
3	Educational aim(s)	Learn math inequalities, sums, teamwork,
4	Target group	2 nd , 3 rd grade children; can be played by anyone age 7+
5	Game Description	It's a card game played in teams by 2,3 or 4 players/team. The main purpose is to win most rounds.
6	Duration (time) gameplay takes	15-30 minutes / a game
7	Number of Players	Minimum 4, maximum 8.
8	Game Objectives/Tasks	The purpose of the game is to win 9 rounds. If after 16 rounds, the score is 8-8, the teams will play again with 9 cards/player, until a team wins 3 rounds.
9	Rules/ Instructions	On each round, each player picks 1 card and will compare it with the card of the player in front of him. The comparing rules: R = Rock = 5 points P = Paper = 5 points S = Scissors = 5 points R>S, S>P, P>R Star = Wins Round Knife = Loses the round If a team plays Star and Knife in the same round, they lose the round. If a round is equal, the sum of the numbers will win, but if the sum is also equal, players will play rock, paper, scissors (1 by 1, in order), until a team wins the round. If 2 stars or 2 knives are played, the sum of the remaining cards will determine the winning team, if this is also equal, they will play rock, paper, scissors until a team wins. The players cannot swap cards between themselves. If players agree, if a round is equal after comparing, the players will play rock paper scissors (1 by 1, in order), until a team wins the round.
10	Resources & materials (hand-outs)	Each team receives 48 playing cards that are the following: 3 stacks of cards from 1 to 10 (30 cards) 5 stacks of cards – R (Rock), P (Paper), S (Scissors) 1 card – Star 1 card – Knife 1 card – number 11
11	Tips and comments	Usually, when playing the star or the knife, it is recommended to play very low numbers (for the other players). Playing in a team will requires a team strategy. Do not play by yourself.

MAR
MAR

